The ICRC is a neutral, impartial and independent humanitarian organisation operating throughout the world and with a regional presence in Bangkok since 1975. Since 2004, the ICRC has been working in the Southern Border Provinces of Thailand to assist and protect people and communities affected by the ongoing situation.

Vacancy Notice

The ICRC Regional Delegation in Bangkok seeks to fill the following position:

Economic Security Generalist
(Livelihoods Support Programme Manager)
Duty station: Pattani

Job purpose:
In charge of the ICRC livelihood support programme in the Deep South of Thailand, the EcoSec Field Officer contributes to the assessment of economic security needs among the most vulnerable fringes of the population, as per ICRC mandate. She identifies and designs appropriate and relevant responses, implementing them and monitoring/evaluating the results with the other EcoSec team members.

Main responsibilities
• Carries out assessments of the needs at community and household level, draws recommendations and contributes to the designing and planning of community-based livelihood support projects (i.e. food production and processing, handicraft, fisheries, agriculture, livestock, trade, services);
• Organizes and manages the implementation of projects’ activities and budget, forecasting the use of resources, monitoring the project’s outcomes, and interacting with service providers, NGOs, State departments as appropriate;
• Supervises and coaches junior EcoSec field officers;

Requirements and experience:
• Degree in Sustainable/Rural Development, Agronomy, Economics, Social Studies, or other relevant field;
• Excellent spoken and written command of English and Thai, knowledge of Malay is an asset;
• Five-year experience min. in similar positions (preferably in an international organization);
• Documented experience in the management of financial and human resources;
• IT proficiency (Microsoft Office, Outlook.);

Your profile
• Strongly motivated by humanitarian work, with good interpersonal skills;
• Effective communication and listening skills;
• Robust project and program management skills;
• Strong community engagement/mobilization skills;
• Willing to be based in Pattani, with frequent field trips to Thailand Southern Border Provinces, sometimes requiring overnight stays;

We offer:
• Dynamic and challenging work environment in the humanitarian and international context;
• A competitive salary with benefits with initial one-year of employment contract;

Preferred starting date: ASAP

Qualified applicants are requested to submit their comprehensive CV and letter of motivation in English, as well as salary expectations, by email only to: ban_recruitment_services@icrc.org (specify position name in your email subject) Attn: Human Resources Department

Deadline for applications: 16 March 2020

Kindly note that only short-listed candidates will be invited for the interview.